

The Management and Entrepreneurship Department at the Kelley School of Business, Indiana University-Bloomington seeks applications for open rank non-tenure track faculty positions in the Organizational Behavior and Human Resources area, to begin fall 2021. The ideal candidate would have experience teaching at the undergraduate and graduate levels. For a candidate to be considered at the Clinical rank, a Ph.D., DBA degree or ABD status, in a relevant field is required, as well as significant professional experience. For a candidate to be considered at the Lecturer rank a master's degree is required and significant professional experience is highly desirable. Teaching experience with large class sizes is also highly desirable. The primary teaching responsibilities involve Organizational Behavior and Human Resources, but possibly include teaching in other related areas. We would be pleased to hear from candidates who will advance the School's diversity, equity and inclusion initiatives.

To ensure consideration, applications should be received by January 10, 2021, however, the search will continue until the positions are filled. Interested applicants should review position requirements and apply at <http://indiana.peopleadmin.com/postings/10088> .

Questions regarding the positions or application process can be directed to:

Ms. Lisa Nees

Administrative Assistant

Department of Management and Entrepreneurship

Kelley School of Business

1309 East 10th Street, HH3100

Bloomington, IN 47405

mgmtrecr@indiana.edu

Indiana University is an equal employment and affirmative action employer and a provider of ADA services. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to age, ethnicity, color, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, genetic information, marital status, national origin, disability status or protected veteran status.